Oh, Conemaugh with spacious halls and campus bright and green,
Our fondest memories will remain with each endearing scene.
We'll ever pledge our loyalties, devoted hearts to you,
To thee, our Alma Mater, we'll ever more be true.
Hail, hail to the Red and Black,
Hail to our school with a cheer,
We give our best to Conemaugh,
Whose fellowship we hold so dear.

ALMA MATER

Dedication

The mark of a good high school is fine teachers. One of Conemaugh Township's finest, Mr. Curtis Greninger, was named finalist for the Pennsylvania 1970 Teacher of the Year Award. Shown in the picture taken last April at a luncheon in Harrisburg are Governor Shafer, Mr. Greninger, and Dr. David H. Kurtzman, Secretary of Education.

Only those of us who know Mr. Greninger well can appreciate how much he deserved this honor. Mr. Greninger has always been a source of inspiration to the students of Conemaugh Township. His obvious enthusiasm for teaching and his unlimited supplies of encouragement and praise have brought out the best in each student. His interest in the students of Conemaugh Township and their future plans has always inspired them to try harder. His cheerful outlook on life and school has brightened our halls considerably. It is through excellent teachers like Mr. Greninger that students can best prepare for future life and its many decisions. For all of these things and many more, we owe Mr. Greninger a debt of gratitude. In view of his outstanding recognition as Teacher of the Year Finalist and his service and loyalty to the students of Conemaugh Township, we proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Curtis Greninger.

Our thanks to those who do their best
To put our school above the rest,
And those we sometimes overlook—
The nurses, counselors, and the cooks.

PERSONNEL

The members of the school board are as follows (left to right): Mr. Wayne A. Kauffman, Treasurer Donald J. Lohr, Mr. Edwin E. Goddard, Vice President Charles W. Salay, Mr. John P. K. Miller, III, President George W. Shuman, Jr., Dr. Donald L. Stover. Absent: Mr. Lowell D. Shaffer, Mr. Richard D. Slick.

JOHN CHOBANY: Indiana University of Pennsylvania, B.S.; University of Pittsburgh, M.Ed.; Graduate Work at University of Pittsburgh; District Superintendent.

Education should prepare people not just to earn a living, but to live a life—a creative, humane, and sensitive life. It is my hope that the graduates of 1971 have received this kind of preparation from our schools.

May happiness and success crown all of your efforts and may God bless you.

John Chobany
District Superintendent

MR. JAMES L. HERDMAN: Pennsylvania State University, B.S.; Lehigh University, M.Ed.; Graduate work at Lafayette College and Lehigh University.

To the Class of 1971:

Through the years, I hope that you will continue to grow in your vision, courage and faith—vision to see worthwhile goals, courage to work and struggle for your goals, and unbounded faith that the things you believe in and strive for will ultimately succeed.

Best wishes for your success and happiness.

Sincerely yours,

James L. Herdman
High School Principal

ANDREW BULAZO: Grove City College, B.A.; Kent State University, M.Ed.; Graduate work at Pennsylvania State University and University of Pittsburgh.

As you complete the first chapter in your life you must realize that you have received and benefitted from the best which your family, your school, your church, and your country has to offer. You have received the heritage of democracy. Commencement marks the beginning of a new chapter in your story. You have demonstrated perseverance and responsibility in attaining the completion of your high school education.

As you live continuing chapters of your life, use the tools, the preparation, and faith entrusted to you wisely. Set your goals and ideals high, conclude each chapter successfully, continue your acceptance of responsibility and remember that each individual's contribution is as significant to the continuance of this great nation as it is to your own Book of Life. It is in these troubled times that the investment which has been given to you will insure our future and successfully conclude your own story.

Andrew Bulazo
Assistant Principal

A new committee in school this year, the Pupil-Personnel Committee, consisting of (left to right): Mr. Brown, Mrs. Thomas, Dr. Thomas, Mr. Chobany, Mr. Bulazo, Mr. Beckley, and Mr. Herdman, meets to discuss any special problems students may have.

A new addition to our secretarial staff, Miss Joanne Temyer, slaves diligently for Mr. Chobany.

Mrs. Nancy Thomas, our school nurse, has dealt with everything from a fake headache to more serious matters.

Our school would never be so great,
If all our teachers weren't first-rate.
They make the classes lots of fun
And challenge the wit of everyone.

Office Secretary, Lois Williamson, has served CTAHS faithfully for many years. She has served the students as well as the administration by always aiding students in distress. Lois not only gives of her time each school day, but is an ever-faithful spectator at sport events as well as many other extra-curricular activities.

Margaret Thomas, Office Secretary, and more notably Cathy's mother, has also served the CTAHS administration through thick and thin. She's always there with a smile and a helping hand, both in and out of school.

Serving in a new capacity this year, as Guidance Office Secretary, is Jean Gindlesperger. She and Lou Ann comprise another mother-daughter combination at CTAHS. Both Mr. Beckley and Mr. Brown consider her services, including preparation of schedules, indispensible.

Mrs. Ruth Keim, business manager, School Board Secretary (non-member), and more importantly, Barb's mother.

Mrs. Nancy Golish, Mrs. Keim's invaluable secretary.

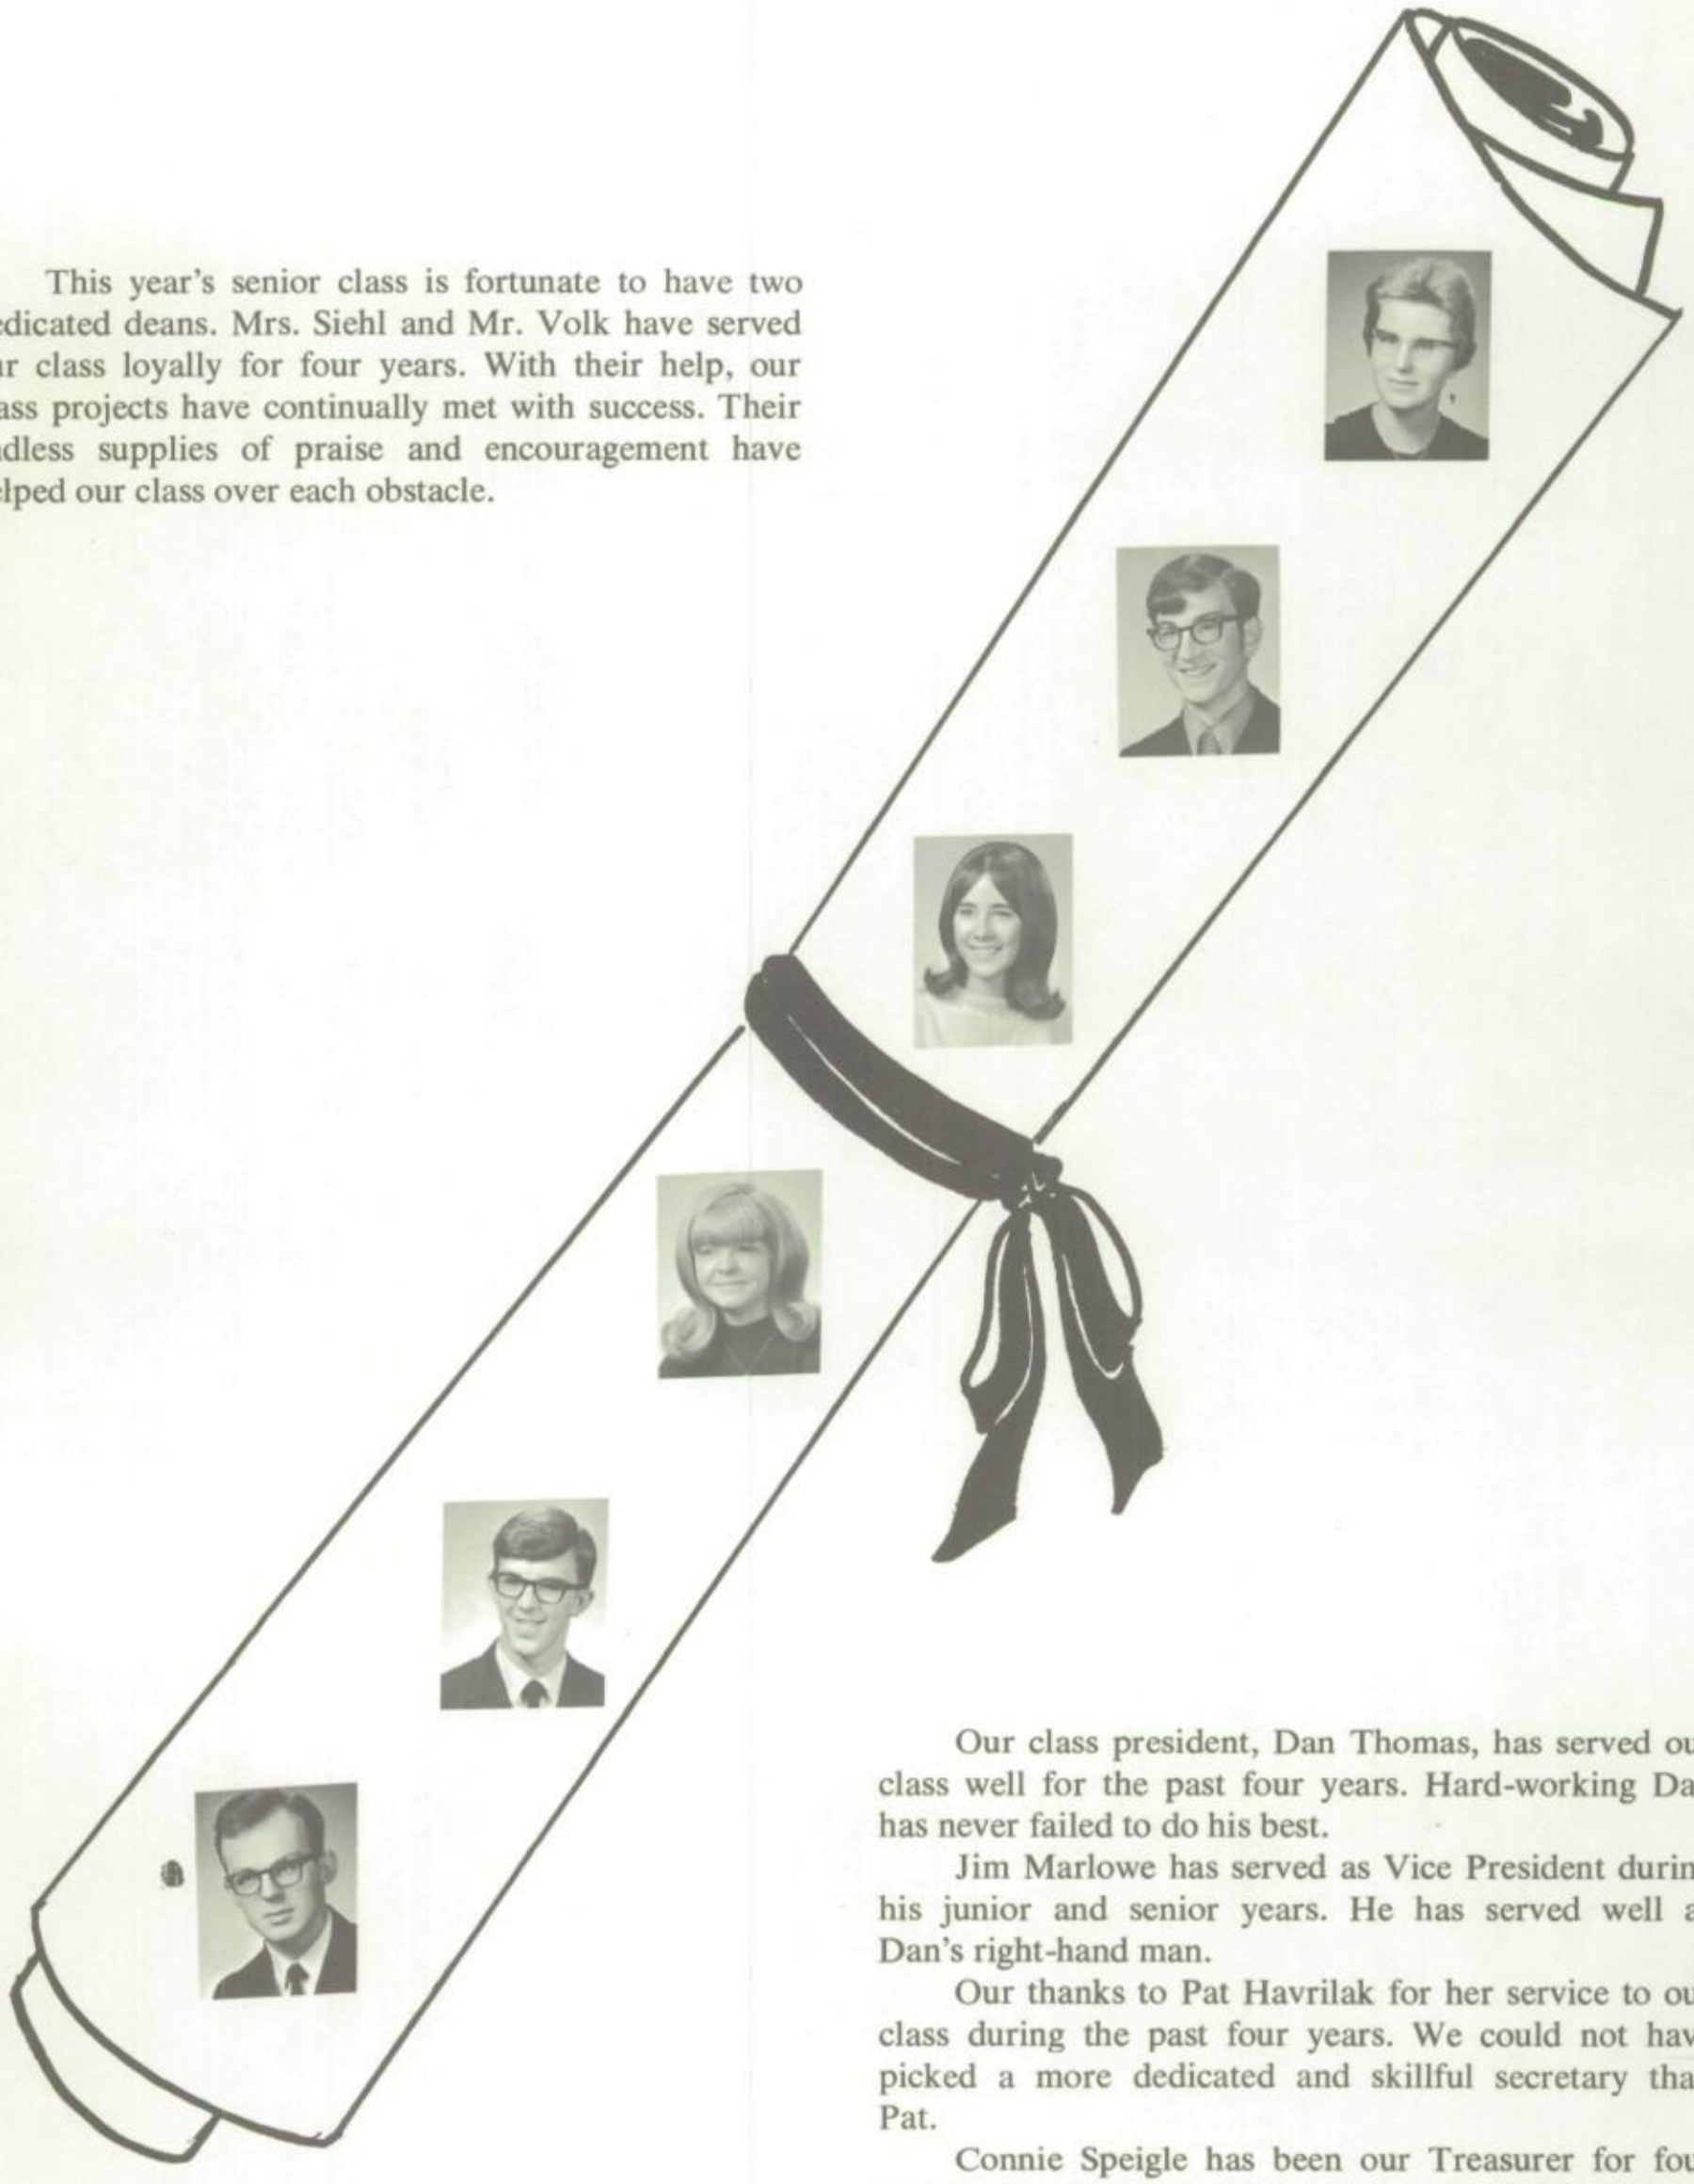
Miss Lucy Cortese, tax collector.

OUR CAFETERIA STAFF: Mrs. Edith Salain, Mrs. Jean Rohde, Head Cook Mrs. Caroline Anderson, Manager Mrs. Mary Blough, Mrs. Mary Struky, Mrs. Gloria Smith, Mrs. Verna Temyer.

Each class is pleasant from the start,
With everything from Trig to Art,
And as we leave each class behind,
New words and problems fill our minds.

CLASSES

This year's senior class is fortunate to have two dedicated deans. Mrs. Siehl and Mr. Volk have served our class loyally for four years. With their help, our class projects have continually met with success. Their endless supplies of praise and encouragement have helped our class over each obstacle.



Our class president, Dan Thomas, has served our class well for the past four years. Hard-working Dan has never failed to do his best.

Jim Marlowe has served as Vice President during his junior and senior years. He has served well as Dan's right-hand man.

Our thanks to Pat Havrilak for her service to our class during the past four years. We could not have picked a more dedicated and skillful secretary than Pat.

Connie Speigle has been our Treasurer for four years. Connie has proved to be an infallible money manager for our class.

The senior class is blessed with many fine teachers. One of these is Mrs. May, who instructs the seniors in grammar, literature, and composition. She makes the class interesting for everyone and helps to prepare college-bound students for future problems.

Senior Teachers

The senior class also extends its thanks to Mr. Kautz, another senior teacher. Through his course in government, he tries to explain the democratic system and helps the students to become better citizens.

We Shook The Family Tree

"Freddy, did I forget to mention that the Junior-Senior Prom isn't a costume ball?"

The Senior Class of 1971 presented a three-act comedy, "We Shook the Family Tree," which was a roaring success. With a cast like this, how could it miss?

"No wonder you haven't been asked to the Junior-Senior Prom; just look at that puny trapezius."

Between the acts of the Senior Class Play, Janet Shirey (right) sang "A Comedy Tonight," and Meladene Buchanan (left) sang "A Time for Us." Lou Ann Gindlesperger (center) accompanied both numbers.

"Oh, Dad, if you make me go to the Prom with 'Short-Pants Freddy', I'll die—I'll just die!"

"The Shermer's house has been broken into. I sure hope Hildegarde was here all evening."

"Run Hildegarde. He can't stop you now."

Behind the Scenes

Miss Romano was the Assistant Director for the Senior class play.

Mr. Salko helped the class of '71 as the Director for both the Junior and Senior class plays.

Mr. Bridgewater acted as the Assistant Director for the Junior class play.

Ginny Miller served as the Properties Manager of the Junior and Senior class plays.

As Student Director for both plays, Jackie Hartfiel's help proved invaluable.

Debbie Barrett was the Assistant Student Director of the Senior class play.

Backed by the student body, the cheerleaders gave a magnificent performance at the contest.

Christmas Dance

The officers of the class of 1973 who attended the dance and their dates are Lois Sleek, Vice President Kevin Barrett, George Miller, Treasurer Janette Rullo, Mary Bereschok, and President Gary Gusmerotti.

The time and effort put into the decorations helped to make this year's Christmas Dance one to remember. This sleigh in the moonlight added to the romantic atmosphere of the dance.

A break for cookies and conversation.

Although they might not admit it, the chaperones enjoy the dance as much as the students.

What could be more romantic than dancing under a star-studded sky?

The great sound of the Brass Tacks added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Our fast-twirling majorettes are Pat Kapitan, Sandy Gillin, Pam Matse, Donna Jones, Chris Blucas, Hattie Spory, and Mary Ann Rudge.

Senior: Head Majorette Donna Jones.

Senior: Chris Blucas.

Shown here with the regular majorettes are alternate majorettes Sharon Smith, Sally Smith, and Janette Rullo. These girls are always ready to take over in case of an emergency.

This trombone sextet consists of Wayne Thomas, Paul Keim, Doug Slick, kcilS gouD, mieK luaP, sam-ohT enyaW.

The Orchestra permits gifted musicians to explore the joys of classical and semi-classical music.

Our patriotic color guard included Peter Zupan, Jim Marlowe (Head), Terry Coughenour, Tim McClain, and Ernest Naugle.

Although it may not be a Stradivarius, this violin still receives Mr. Salay's tender, loving care.

These seniors share many happy experiences—Friday-night games, parades, practices, concerts, and even an occasional informal football game (below).

The Concert Band gives students, who share an interest in music, an opportunity to perform together.

This highly charged group is the Trumpet Quartet. Members are Dennis Harman, Barb Lehman, Dave Mishler, and Allen Tresnicky.

The mellow music of the Woodwind Ensemble is an important part of each concert. Members are Cathy Thomas, Andrea Schillinger, Bev Williams, Pat Stewart, Charlotte Jones, and Polly Barkley.

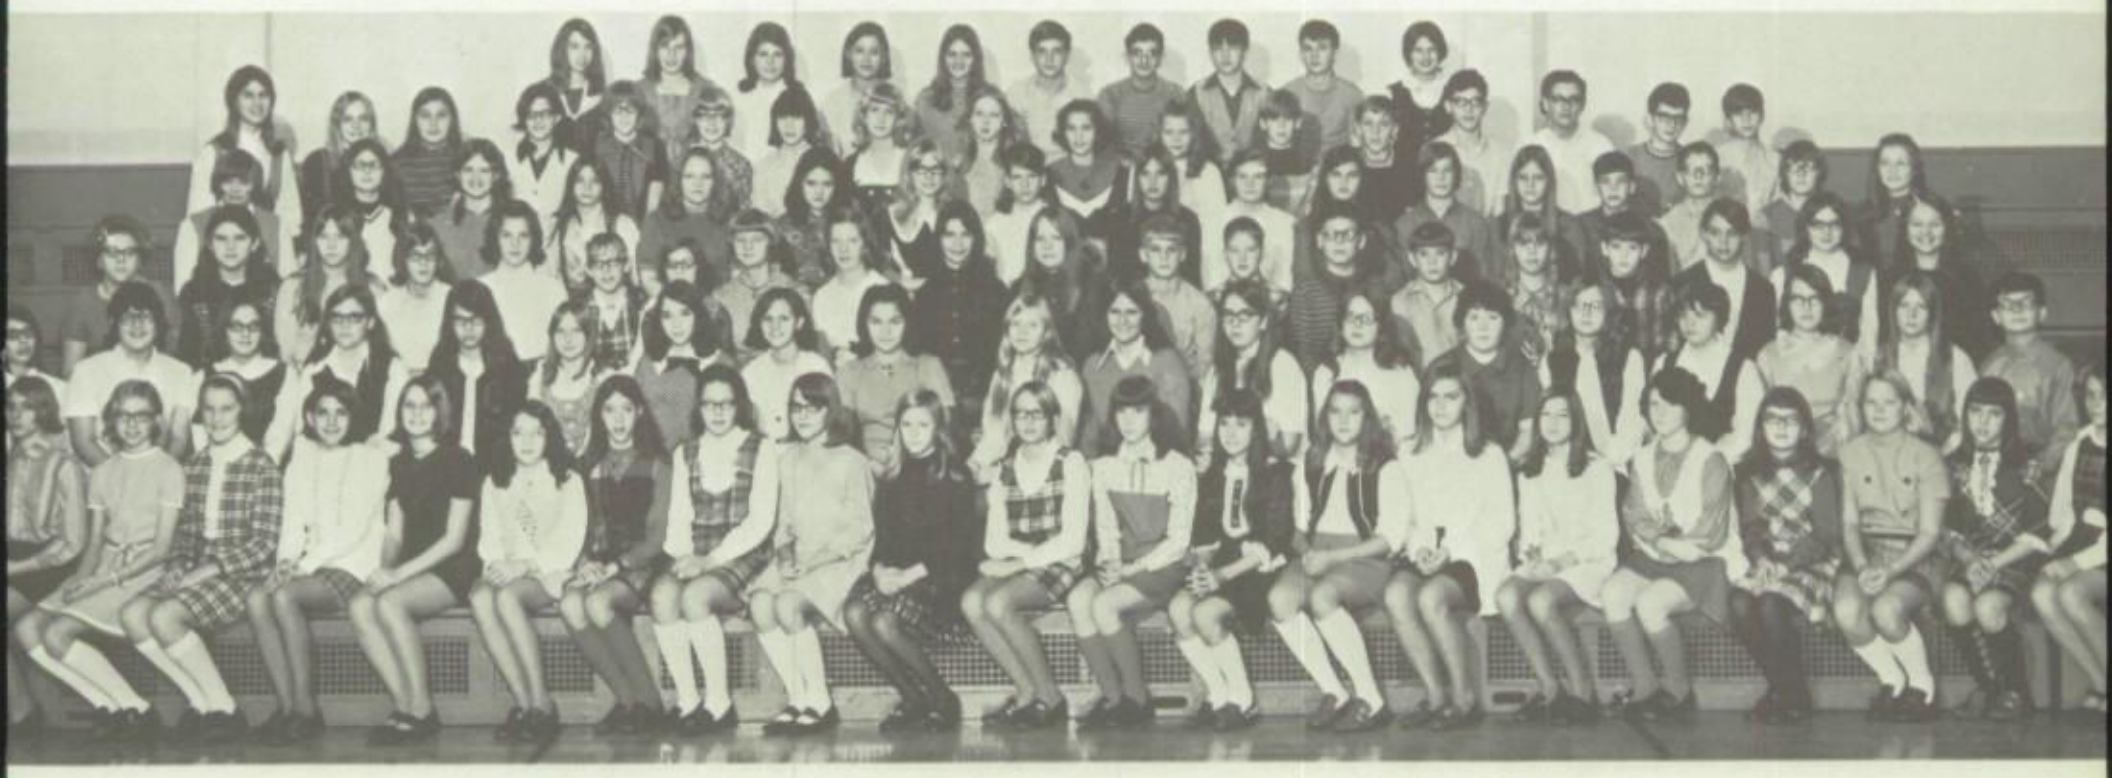
This accomplished group of piano sitters is, in reality, the Senior High Girls Trio composed of Beth Good, Gloria Hostetler, and Debbie Barrett.

Where there are vocal groups, there are accompanists. Our accompanists are Enid Stahl, Lou Ann Gindlesperger, and Beth Good.

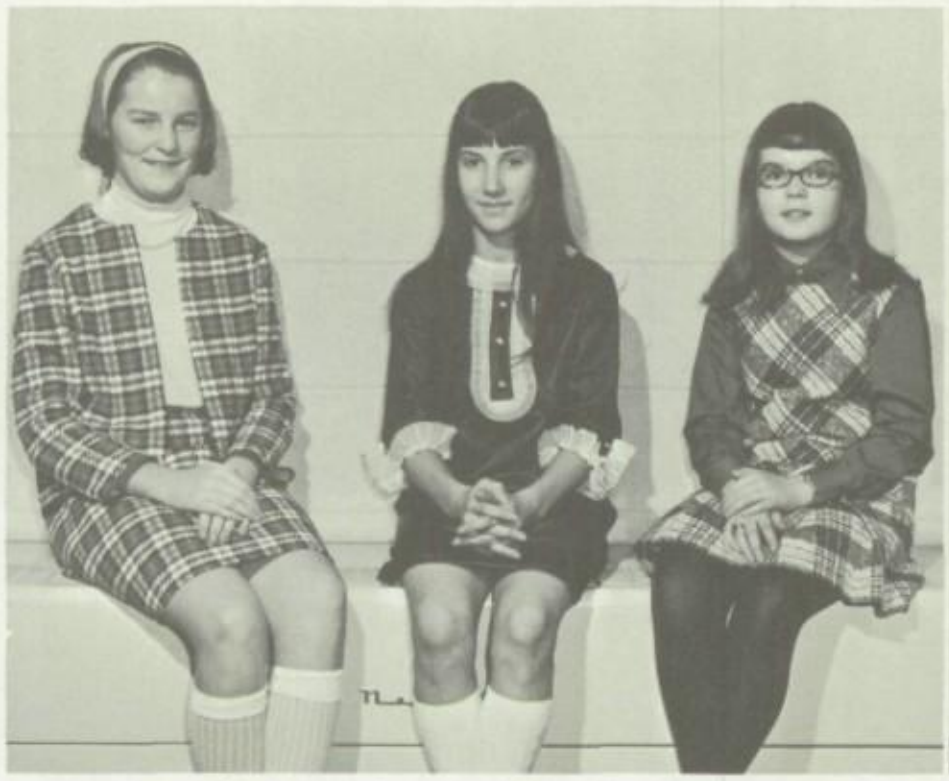


Junior High Chorus gives talented students an opportunity to sing in public.

The songs they sang, the friends they met, and many, many other things will be among the memories of these Senior Choir members.

The ever ready Choir Alternates are always there to step in for a sick Choir member. Alternates are Debbie Gindlesperger, Diana Reynolds, Patti Coughenhour, Becky Williamson, and Wendy Liska.

One of the school's most active groups is the Choir, which presents programs of religious music on holidays and makes a concert tour of local churches during the spring.



You have to start somewhere and Seventh Grade Girls' Trio is a rather good beginning. Members are Susan Saylor, Betty Lou Lazer, and Pam Tilley.

When they begin to sing, the members of the Eighth Grade Girls' Trio really aren't shy at all. Members are Patty Singer, Kathy Miller, and Cheryl Hostetler.

It always helps to listen to the competition. Members of the Freshman Girls' Trio are Kathy McClelland, Michele Czuplak, and Lois Sleek.

Accompanists are of the greatest help to any vocal group. Junior High Accompanists are Pam Blough, Karen Eash, Jan Anderson, Gail Sleek, Bonnie Altemus, Debbie Kutchman, Lois Sleek, Sharon Honkus, and Sally Smith.

Bonfire

The Bonfire, a highpoint of color week, was held on September 24. Jeff Rininger, a co-captain of the football team, lit the huge blaze. Mr. Terebus (right) proved to be an inspiring main speaker, and Coach Majer (left) urged the team forward. The CTAHS Band added to the spirit of the night.

The Queen's attendants are Robert Muir and Linda Matse.

Homecoming 1970

Student Council President Dan Blough presents red roses to Homecoming Queen Gloria Hostetler.

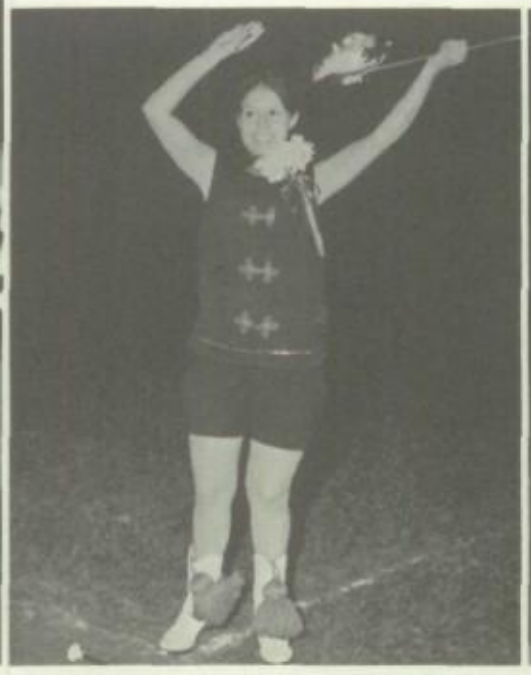
What memories these scenes invite
Of fun-filled games each Friday night.
The food, the friends, the freezing hands,
The soaring music of the band.

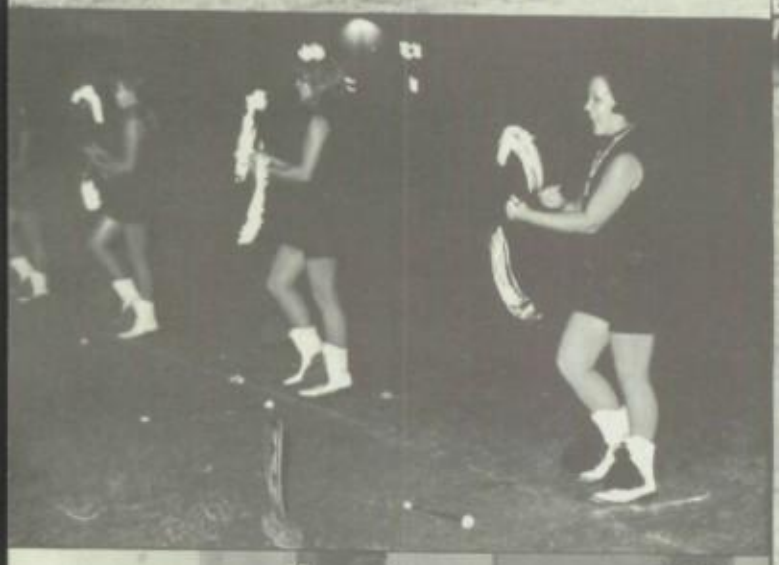


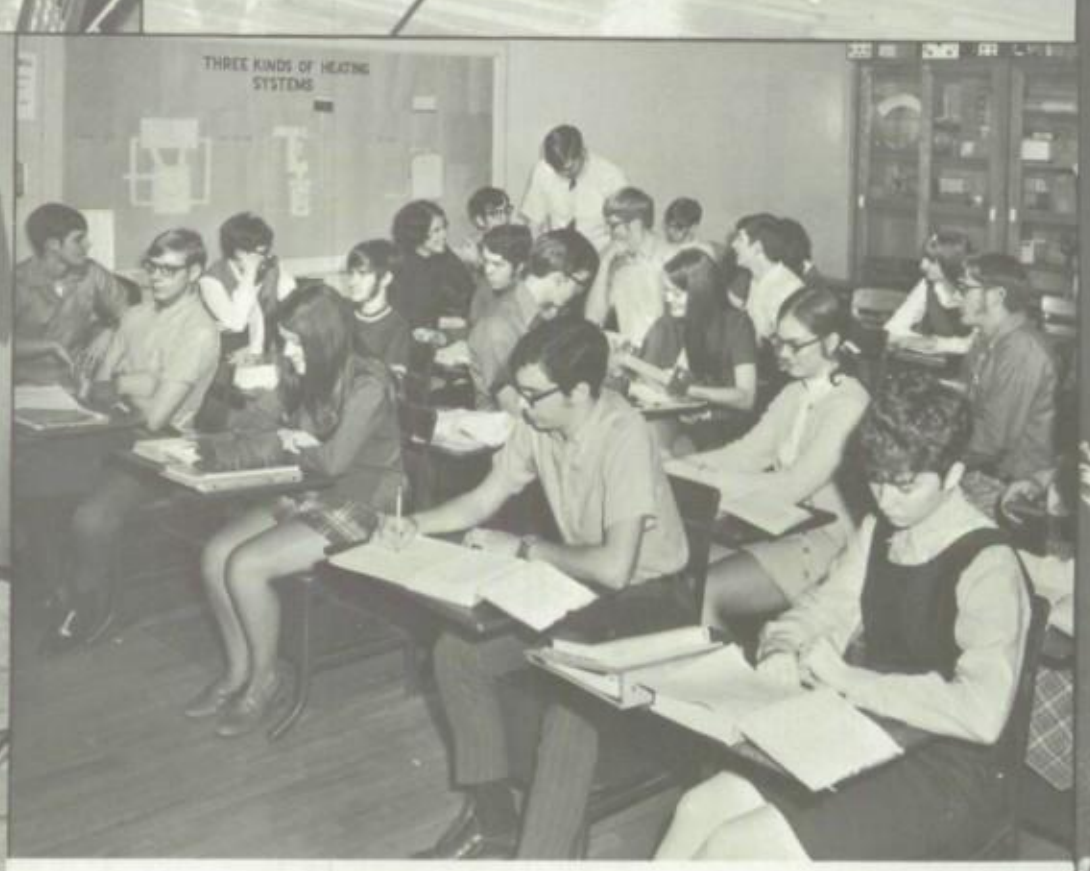
Christmas Parade

The fourth annual Conemaugh Township Christmas Parade was held on December 5, 1970. The CTAHS Choir carolled on the float entitled "Here We Come A Wassailing."

Santa Claus took a break from Christmas preparations to be in the Christmas Parade. With the help of the cheerleaders and majorettes, Santa passed out treats to the kiddies along the parade route.

Many school organizations entered floats in the parade. The FFA float featured a flock of fleecy sheep.





Time it was and what a time it was;
It was . . .
A time of innocence; a time of confidences.
Long ago, it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories, they're all that's left of you.

Our bold, brave teams we always back;
They make us proud of red and black.
The other teams we often beat;
We very rarely taste defeat.

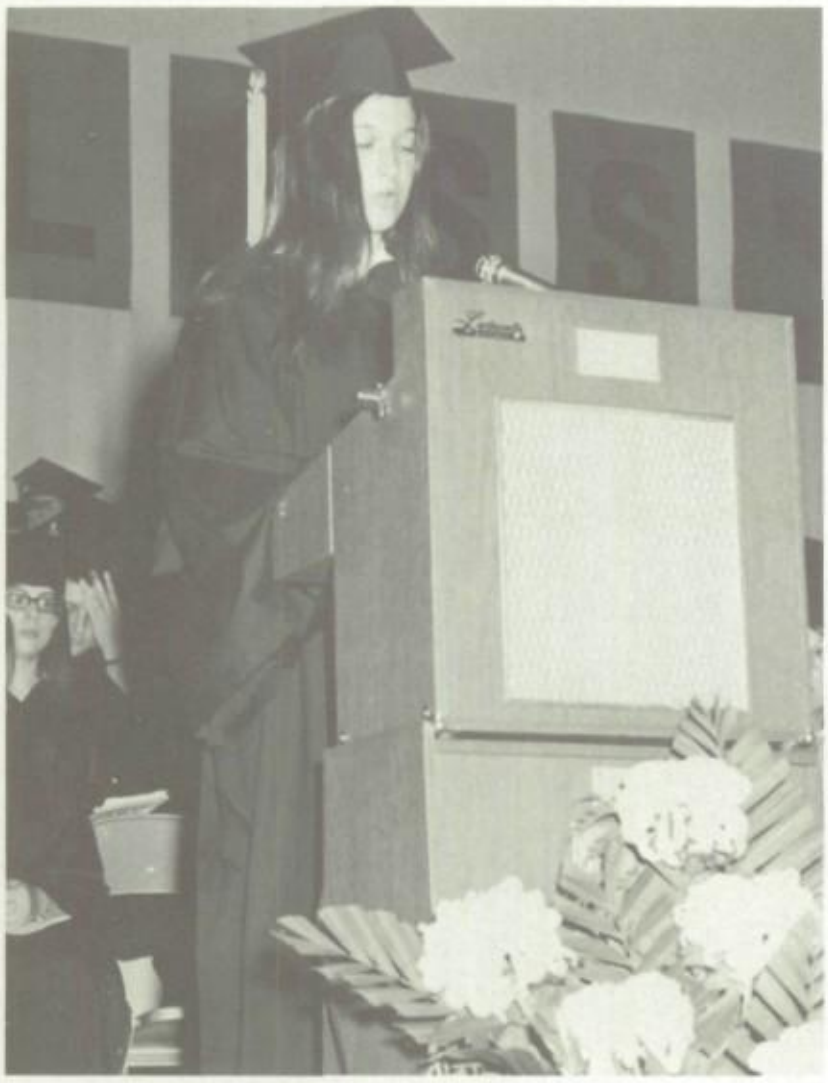
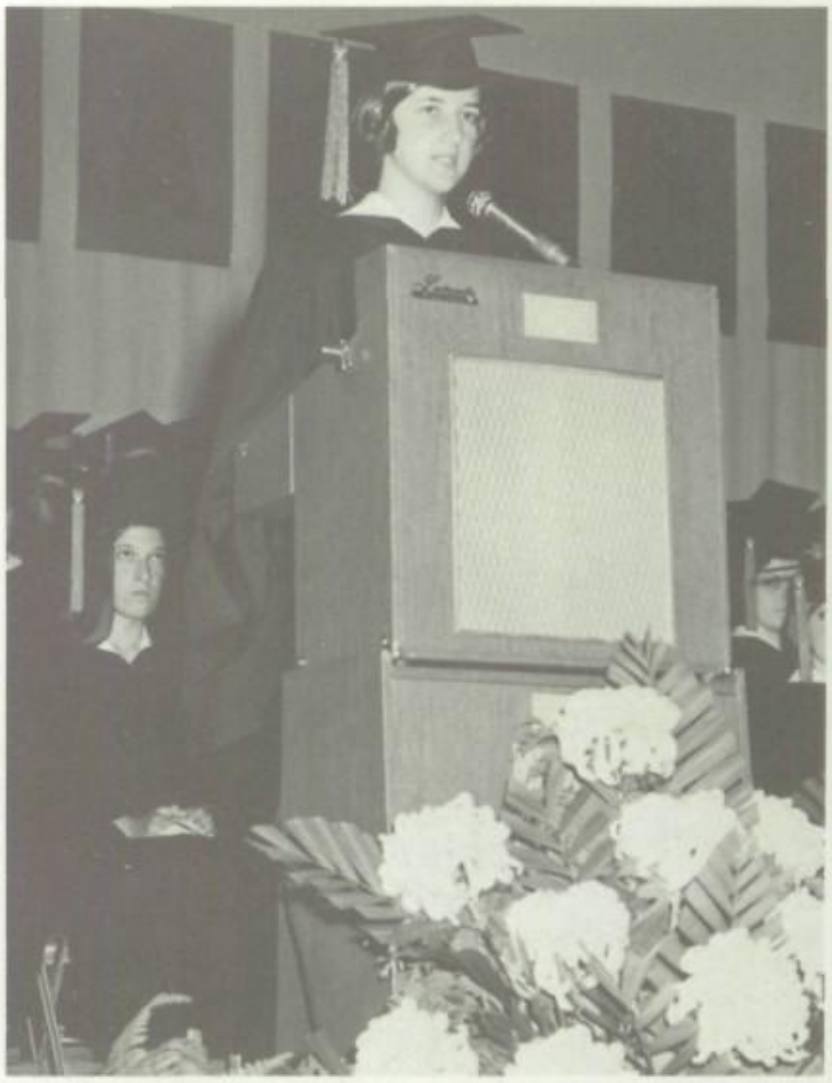
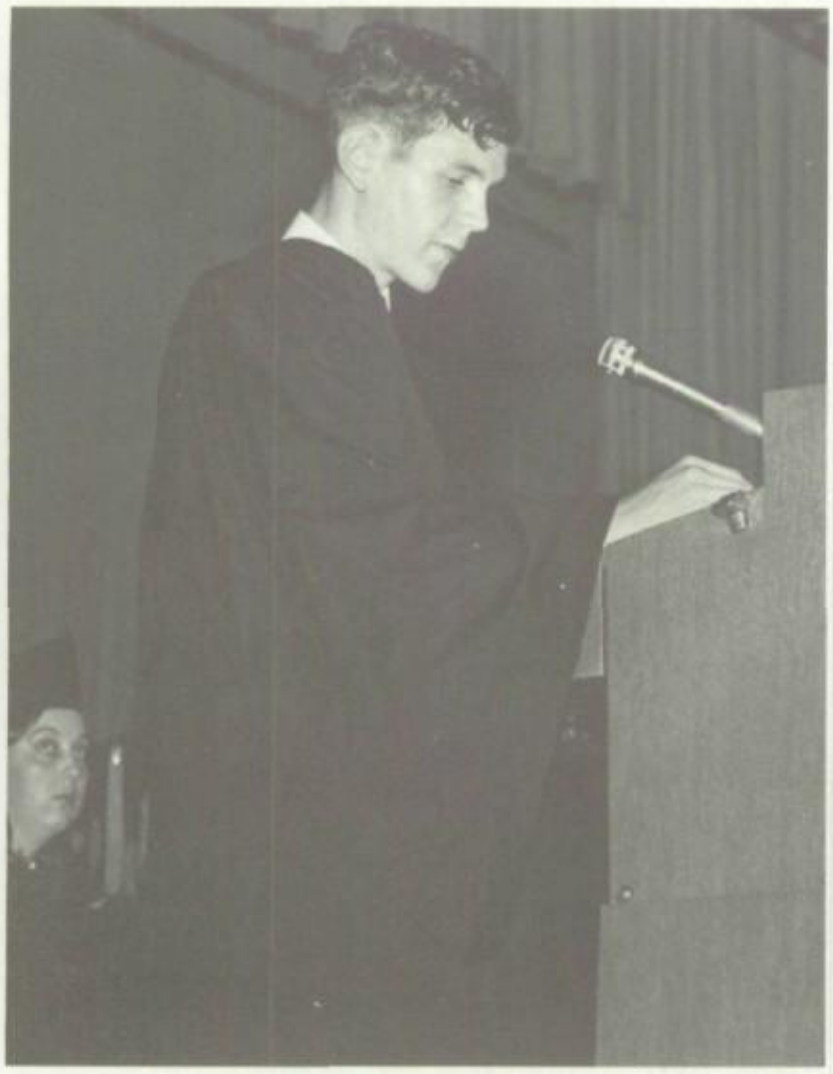
Graduation—1970

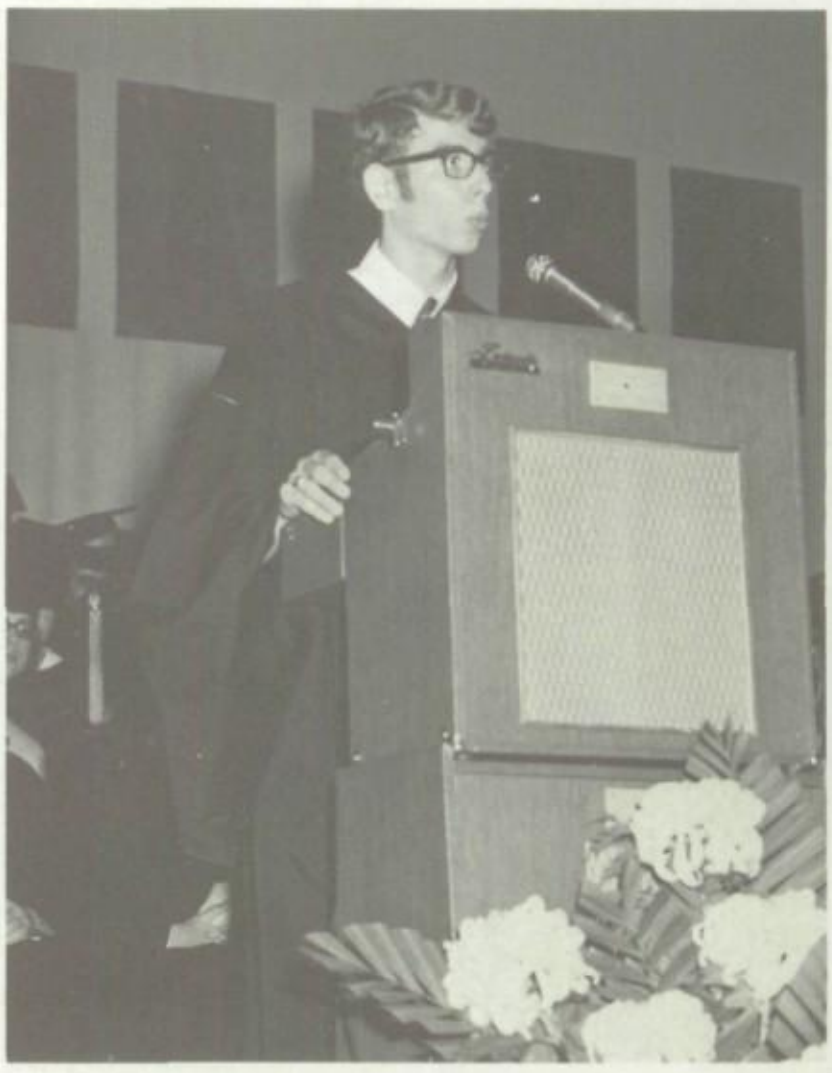
The members of Conemaugh Area's Class of 1970 were graduated Monday, May 25, 1970. The class was presented by James L. Herdman, principal, (lower left). The evening's speaker, the Honorable Charles H. Coffroth, (lower center) challenged the class to live up to the times. Supervising Principal, John Chobany, (lower right) presented the members of the class with diplomas.





"All's right with the world! . . ?" was the main topic discussed by the four student speakers of the Class of '70. Chris Custer (upper left) and Robert Eppley (lower left) spoke on "This is the winter of our discontent." Pam Woy (upper right) and Brian Knight (lower right) followed with "If winter comes, can spring be far behind?" These speakers, the student leaders of today, will be the world leaders of tomorrow.





An apprehensive moment as these seniors prepare to enter the auditorium.

Pam Gindlesperger gratefully accepts her diploma from Mr. Chobany.

I've waited twelve years for this moment.

Super-soprano Sue Gillinger sings "A May Morning."

Ann Kelly plays a solo on her licorice stick.

Candy Canes and Mistletoe

Mrs. Thomas, school nurse, prepares to call for First-Aid as Mary Bickley, secretary of the Sophomore class, pins on her corsage.

"Why did we have to sit so close to the band?"

This charming centerpiece adds the finishing touch to the decorations.

David Mishler, President of the Sophomore class, his date, Carolyn Davidhizar, John Rullo, and his date, Pam Naugle, reflect upon the evening's festivities.

Happiness is sitting under a giant candy cane.

Polynesian Nights

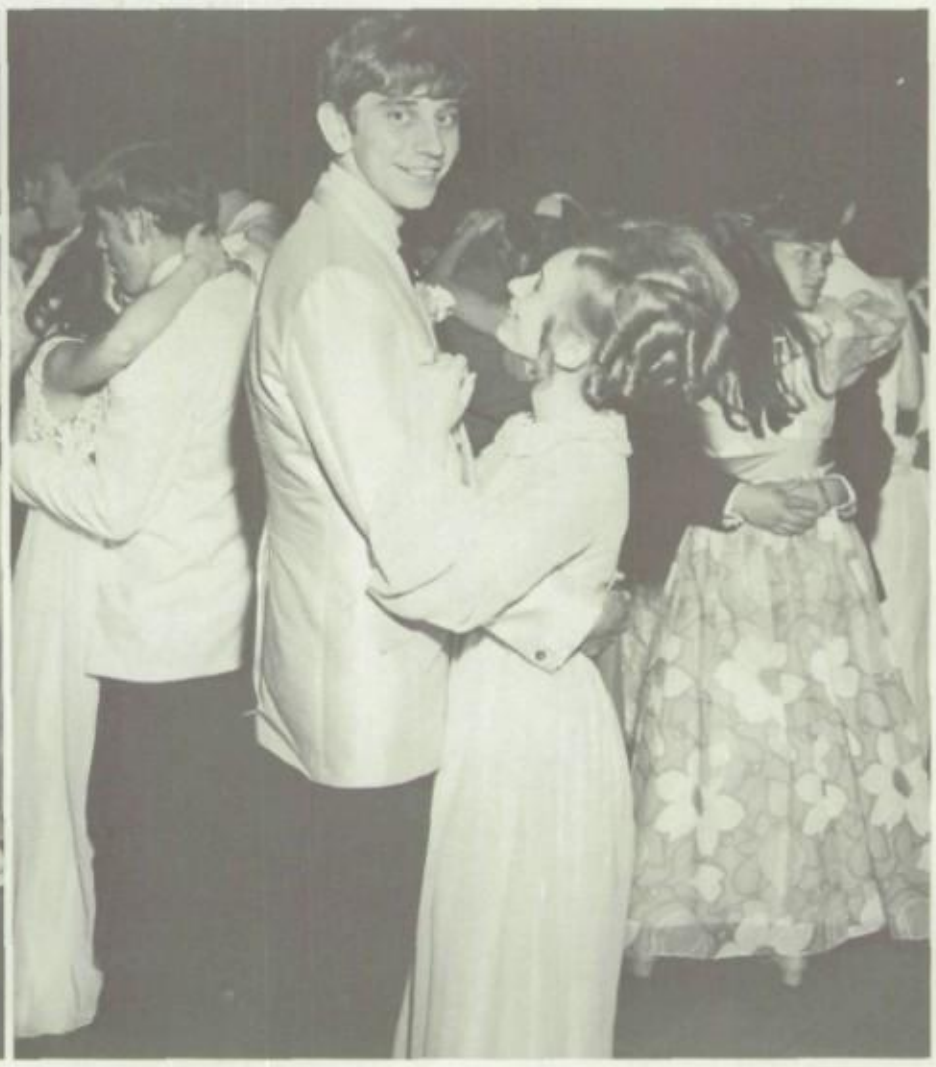
POLYNESIAN MEMORIES
The air was thick with romance,
The moon was big and bright,
The music was full of madness,
Which captured the spell of the night.
The dance was delightful,
And the hours did slip by,
This memory of our Polynesian holiday
Will never, never die.

Each year the Junior-Senior Prom is sponsored by the Junior class. Shown here is Dan Thomas, President of the class of '71, and his date, Donna Szewczyk.

The rustic atmosphere of Green Gables provides a memorable experience for all who attended.

This is Dan Blough's date; the question is: Where's Dan?

Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow is the morning after.



The music was soft, the lights were dim, and I could have danced all night.

Dave Punako's winning secret—his shot put is made of styrofoam.

"I still haven't copied Lew's style," mutters Jay Miller.

Fearless John Mantini hopes for a smooth landing.

Hopefully Andy Kentula doesn't have homicidal tendencies.

Don Cotchen, caught in a quotable quote, "Friends, Romans, Trackmen, Lend me your spears!"
